

Preparation of documentation/instructions for key regulatory body procedures and development of guidance for licencees

Realization period: 15 – 26 October 2018

TASK

Assistance in preparing documentation/instructions for the key regulatory body procedures and developing the guidance for the licencees and applicants, bearing in mind the key regulatory procedures, and technical content required from the licencees and the applicants

RESULT

- Guidance for key regulatory body procedures based on graded approach – grounded on graded approach bearing in mind its structure and statutory competences
- Guidance for licensees and applicants, bearing in mind key regulatory body procedures, and with reference to the technical content required from licensees and applicants – contains the description of the roadmap for certain regulatory decisions based on the risk of practice performance assumed by the new Bill.

IAEA Safety Standards
for protecting people and the environment

Leadership and Management for Safety

General Safety Requirements
No. GSR Part 2

LESSONS LEARNED

Definition of the key regulatory body procedures based on graded approach and in view of the competences of the Directorate assumed by the new Bill.

Preparation of documents within the key regulatory body procedures: preparation of legal and regulatory documents, inspection and implementation, licencing and permit issuance, etc.