Information Sheet

Purpose

The purpose of the event is to review and update the Member States' status on Radiation Protection to Control the Exposure of the Public, provide overview of the project background and objectives, discuss the issues and challenges, agree on the project workplan and activities.

Working Language(s)

The working language(s) of the event will be English.

Deadline for Nominations

Nominations received after 9 March 2022 will not be considered.

Project Background

At the IAEA NSRW European regional workshop held in March 2019 in Cyprus, the participants presented challenges they faced during the implementation of the requirements of GSR Part 3. The issue of radiation protection of the public was among major challenges, particularly in areas of regulatory control of consumer products, non-medical human imaging and inspection devices, and commodities. Thus RER9159 was formulated to share the knowledge and information and to enhance their network and cooperation in this area.

Scope and Nature

The meeting will cover:

- i) report on the status and challenges of the regulatory control of consumer products, non-medical human imaging and inspection devices, and commodities.
- ii) review project background and objectives
- iii) discuss and agree on the workplan and activities including the venues

Participation

RER9159 counterparts and relevant institutions.

Participants' Qualifications and Experience

The participants should be from authorities responsible for radiation protection or public health protection.
